Enroll your children in the Oak Park Arts District's Art Camp and give them the opportunity to expand their art skills with professional artists through dance, mixed-media, glasswork, beading, culinary arts, fiber arts, print-making, origami and more.

BEAD IN HAND (145 Harrison St., 708-848-1761) Julia Schaefer, a multi-media artist, has been running children's classes and birthday parties since she started working at Bead in Hand in 2000. Students will learn age appropriate beading skills to create unique beaded objects.

INTUIT DANCE (237 Harrison St., 312-505-0816) INTUIT Dance director, Diane VanDerhei, has created a curriculum that develops dance technique while engaging imaginations and creativity.

EXPRESSIONS GRAPHICS (29 Harrison St., 708-386-3552) Printmaker and artist, Janet Schill, has experience in woodblock, linoleum, etching, and screen printing. Students will learn a variety of fun printmaking techniques.

MAGICAL MINDS STUDIO (343 Harrison St., 708-948-7934) Owner and artist, Haj Herbert, has created a nurturing art experience for young children. Students will be exposed to various forms of art from paint to sculpture. Multiple materials are used to allow children to explore various outcomes with open ended art projects.

CREATIVE CHANGES (140 Harrison St., 708-805-2441) Students will create Origami Mobiles and learn about Japanese culture from instructor Christopher Wallace, who has taught arts and bicycle education to kids for over 20 years.

PAMELA PENNEY TEXTILE ARTS (130 Harrison St., 708-785-7782) Textile and fiber artist, Pamela Penney, has been teaching the fun of fiber to children and adults for over 20 years. Kids will learn fun techniques to use fabric, yarn and fiber to create a unique textile art piece.

CALYPSO MOON (331B Harrison St., 708-848-1385) Sallie Wolf, an artist and writer, has worked with District 97's Young Artist's Workshop, Young Author's Workshop, and Art Start. Children will work in watercolor, collage and mixed media.

STUDIO LIGHT (27G Harrison St., 708-955-4666) Visual artist and writer, Karen Light, an experienced art teacher with Urban Gateways, strives to teach students more about themselves and the world through engaging, creative art-making.

PRODIGY GLASSWORKS (207 Harrison St., 708-445-8000) Laura Henderson has been working with fused glass since 2002. Students will learn fusing fundamentals and make a project that combines color and texture into a unique glass piece.

TRATTORIA 225 (225 Harrison St., 708-358-8555) Restaurant owner, Craig Charlton, will explore the culinary arts and good nutrition with the students in this fun food class. Students will get hands-on experience in a professional kitchen and work with a real wood-fired pizza oven.

Children will visit 2 different galleries each day for art lessons and will be escorted between galleries by the instructors. The class schedule will be sent out a few weeks before camp starts. Note: Please send a nut free snack and drink for your child to enjoy mid morning.
